

Citizenship in the Nation, St. Louis MO

Location – Old Courthouse at the Jefferson National Expansion Memorial AND Thomas F. Eagleton U.S. Courthouse.

Tuesday, July 2, 2013

9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., Check in begins at 8:30

Learn what it means to be a citizen of the United States by participating in a variety of sessions, touring a site that is on the National Register of Historic Places, and touring a Federal Facility. The program begins at the Historic Old Courthouse, and ends at the Thomas F. Eagleton U.S. Courthouse. Presenters will be from both facilities, and will include a Federal Judge.

Participants will need to arrive at the Old Courthouse at 8:30 a.m. for check-in. Following the program at the Old Courthouse, the group will walk to the Eagleton Courthouse at 10:00 a.m., and will be dismissed from there at 4:30 pm.

This program is recommended for first class and above. Reservations begin Monday, April 22, and end May 20, or when full. The workshop is free, but reservations are required, and space is limited. To register, call Rachel Marshall, the Public Education and Community Outreach Administrator at the Eagleton Courthouse NO EARLIER THAN APRIL 22. (314) 244-2410.

A packet will be emailed 4 weeks before the workshop. The packet will include logistics and parking information, and pre-workshop activities. Scouts will be expected to read over all of the requirements in advance, as well as to complete some of the requirements in advance. Completion of the pre-workshop activities and all workshop sessions will fulfill all Citizenship in the Nation Merit Badge Requirements.

To Bring: Scouts should bring a copy of the Merit Badge Pamphlet, a pen or pencil, and a signed Merit Badge Card. Scouts will need to bring completed pre-workshop activities as well. Scouts should also bring a sack lunch. A bottle of water and a morning snack are also suggested.

Call or email with questions any time. Reservations will not be accepted prior to April 22. (314) 244-2410 or Rachel_Marshall@ca8.uscourts.gov
